

Nagaland Tour

Nagaland is the 16th state of India which came into force in the year 1963. With seven Districts and 16 vibrant tribes Nagaland is a state to be explored by travel enthusiast. All the tribes have their own set of cultures and traditions. Warriors, attire, food habit mountains, valleys, forests all these make Nagaland more mysterious. Climatic condition of the state is very pleasant through out the year .

The Hornbill Festival

A headgear during the Hornbill Festival

Apart from other attractions of Nagaland Hornbill Festival is the front runner. It is also called as “ Festival of Festivals”. This annual fair is organised during the month of December every year. Ten day cultural extravaganza show cases all the Naga tribe’s culture & Traditions.

Active Member

Review us

Held in Kisama village about 12 km from state capital Kohima. One can see the ethnic heritage of Naga people and their zeal to preserve it.

This festival is photographers delight and has emerged as major tourist attraction of Nagaland.

To visit this festival one must book atleast 2 months prior to beginning.

Dzukou Valley

Amongst Off track destination in Nagaland Dzukou Vally has emerged as the popular destination. It is situated on the border of Nagaland and Manipur states. This valley have different look at different times but during the summer months it blooms with different flowers. This valley has also gaining popularity as “Valley of Flowers” after Nandan Kanan in Uttrakhand.

Rivulets, variety of flowers, herbs and different shrubs paints the vibrancy of this valley. Eye soothing greenery of Dzukou valley will leave you spell bound. Some times thin layer of ice is also seen reminding about the cold climatic condition at a height of 2438m.

Active Member

& TRAVELS

For customer Feedbacks/ Great Deals/ Photos etc visit our official facebookpage
:<https://www.facebook.com/assamtourstravels>

Active Member

